

Dear Congressman:I understand that the NAB feels threatened by XM. They should be... it is a superior business model and offers better value for the consumer. Unfortunately the "industry" has had its way for so long that they cannot handle the competition.

That is not what the American concept of Capitalism is all about however. Just as broadcast television has had to adapt in the age of multiple cable channels so to should broadcast radio.